BASIC TERMINOLOGY

Using a clear terminology and easy communications is vital to create Stress-Free Vacation Experiences.

PARTS INVOLVED IN THE VACATION:

- TRAVEL AGENT: a Travel Agent is a Travel enthusiast individual, generally a private retailer, that provides travel and tourism related services to the public on behalf of suppliers such as airlines, car rentals, cruise lines, Tour Operators, which pay them on commission basis.
- TOUR OPERATOR: a Tour Operator typically combines tour and travel components to create a package holiday. They advertise and produce brochures to promote their products, holidays and itineraries. Tour Operators often collaborate with Travel Agents, in a B2B model, who promote and sell their vacation packages in exchange of commissions.
- CLIENT: Individual or group of individuals going on a Vacation or requesting Travel Services.
- SERVICE PROVIDER: Local Vendor(s), connected to the Tour Operator with special contracts and particular rates, who will perform the Travel Services for the Clients at the designed destinations (guides, drivers, Hotels, Car Rentals, Restaurants, Apartments & Villas Rentals, ticket offices, et cetera)

SERVICES:

- CONSULTATION: the consultation is generally the first approach from the Clients that ask to the Travel Professional assistance in choosing and/or putting together a Vacation.
- BOOKING PROCESS: the booking process is the process that takes the client to his/her vacation. Usually the Client contacts the Travel Agent (You) expressing the intent to go on a Vacation. The Travel Agent will collect the necessary info (there will be a dedicated session of this training) and contacts the Tour Operator (Us), who deals with the Service Providers (Drivers, Guides, Hotels, Restaurants, et cetera) to put together a quote or Vacation Proposal for the requested Vacation. Once the Tour Operator forwards this quote to the Travel Agent, the Travel Agent will deal with the Client to discuss further details. Once the Client accepts, the Travel Agent will collect their payment info through a Credit Card Authorization Form & General Conditions (attached), and forward it to the Tour Operator in the form of a security deposit of $400 per person (exceptions made for groups, last minute bookings, low amount bookings), while the full balance is generally due 50 days prior departure date. Once the security deposit is paid, the Tour Operator will perform all the reservations and send to the Travel Agent one simple Travel Document, that the Travel Agent will deliver to Client.
- CUSTOMER SERVICE: the customer service is a due service to the Clients from the beginning of the consultation (answering their questions and concerns, addressing ideas or issues that the Clients are not aware of in the choice of their destination or regarding specific Travel Services), through the booking process (helping them filling the Credit Card Authorization Form, Going through the General Conditions with them, guiding them in subscribing a Travel Insurance Plan), and while they are on Vacation (by providing them all necessary info and emergency phone numbers of Service Providers that can assist them, 24/7, on the spot), or in case of issues (by explaining to them the Refund policy described in the General Conditions, helping them dealing with the Travel Insurance).

TRAVEL DOCUMENTS: a clear and simple document that the Tour Operator provides to the Travel Agent so that he or she can deliver it to the Clients. This document comes in the form of a day by day Itinerary, containing title of the services, meeting points, meeting times, service providers emergency contacts and special instruction (if any). That's Amore! Tours tries, whenever possible, to go 100% paperless, allowing Clients to carry just the electronic Itinerary. Exceptions could be possible to special nature of certain services (Sample attached).

FINALIZING A SALE & CLIENTS' APPROACH

The success on finalizing a sale is not guaranteed, therefore a NO should never turn us down. It is to be kept in mind that Clients often inquire out of curiosity and not for the real purpose of booking a Vacation at the moment.

Tips:

- 1) when the potential client approaches, key factor is to ask "When do you wish to travel?". This question will give us an immediate clarification about who are we dealing with: a "shopper" or "a real client".
- 2) once we recognize that the person is "a real client", it will help to find out who is paying for the trip. It happens often that couples booking honeymoon put out a budget and a wishlist way higher than what their parents, the ones who are gifting them with the honeymoon, are willing to pay. To find out who is paying, there is not a suggested way, because mostly depends on the situation. Important is to proceed with common sense, integrity and polite discretion.
- 3) Sometimes clients could be hard cookies and go on with questions such as: "I am internet savvy, I can book these things myself. Why should I pay you?". Easy answer is: "Because I have deals with my vendors that are reserved to Travel Professionals, therefore cannot be found on Internet. Plus I am not hiding a catch, like often happens in the online promotions. Have you heard of luxury Caribbean resorts for $20 per night? I did, and I also found out that the promotion was during Hurricane Season. I also guarantee the ease of mind, with services such as 24/7 emergency line and Travel Insurance".

Must:

- 1) What do we need to collect? NAMES - PHONE NUMBER - EMAIL - DATES OF THE TRIP - DURATION - BUDGET - DESTINATION - NOTES (particular interests such as cooking classes, art, nature, particular hotels category such as 5 star, boutique). Form attached.
